8. The Market Committee, shall, by resolution, fix the upset price of rental and terms, and terms of lease, and of payment of the rent to be paid for the stalls, stands, ice wells, cellars and shops in the several public markets in this City; but such resolution to be valid shall be reported to and sanctioned by the said Council, the said Committee shall also determine the form of lease to be used and the number of years over which such leases shall extend, provided that no such lease shall extend over five years.

26. Any dealer who falsely states in any ticket aforesaid the weight or amount of any load of coal sent out for delivery to a purchaser in the City, and any person who, upon request as aforesaid, refuses to produce his ticket to the Weigh Clerk, shall be subject to the penalties of this by-law.

PENAL CLAUSE.
